

8TH EUROPEAN PHOTONIC INTEGRATION FORUM

ORGANIZERS

ABOUT

This forum provides an opportunity to end users (both academic and industrial) to get in direct contact with the major European players of the photonic integration ecosystem.

FIND OUT

- Are end users benefiting from European open access photonic integration technology platforms?
- How is the European photonic integration supply chain facilitating the R&D of products?
- What are the challenges from end user's perspective?

PARTICIPATION

Attendance is free of charge for ECOC participants but registration is mandatory through the JePPIX website. Last minute access to the event is also possible but not guaranteed due to limited room capacity.
